

PRIVACY POLICY

Bird Visuals passively collects information that is automatically sent to us by your web browser. This information typically includes your domain name (the site after the @ in your e-mail address). It may also contain your user name (the name you are known as before the @ in your e-mail address). The amount of information sent depends on the settings you have on your web browser; please refer to your browser if you want to learn what information it sends.

We use the information that we automatically receive from your web browser to see which pages you have visited within our site, which site you visited before coming to ours, and where you go after you leave. We at Bird Visuals can then develop statistics that are very helpful to understanding how this site is used by our visitors. This statistical data is interpreted by Bird Visuals in its continuing effort to present the website content that users are seeking in a format they find most helpful.

Furthermore, Bird Visuals collects information when you contact us or respond to the surveys, questionnaires or applications that we make available. If you e-mail us, you are voluntarily releasing information to us. If you answer questions we have placed on the page, you are also voluntarily releasing that information to us. (You may decide not to answer any questions; if you do, you may still continue your visit, but we may elect not to provide you the related services or features.) All computer-generated information, such as your e-mail address, may be used or shared with Bird Visuals affiliates, third parties and/or transmitted to another country. An example of a third party that could receive your Personal Information is a data processing contractor that operates computer systems on our behalf. Our third-party recipients are: data processing contractors that provide computer services on our behalf, distribution firms that will fulfill your requests, billing firms that process your orders, mailing firms that will assist us with our mailings, marketing firms that will assist us with direct marketing, and service contractors that provide maintenance and repair services on our behalf. This site works with a third party that collects anonymous traffic data. Whenever any data is transferred to a third party, that party will be contractually bound to abide by our privacy policy.

Bird Visuals will not use or share, either within Bird Visuals or with a third party, any information collected at this page for direct marketing purposes. We may share the information collected at this page with third parties, and transmit the information to another country, for purposes other than direct marketing. We may also remove all the personally identifiable information and use the rest for historical, statistical or scientific purposes. We may also use it to investigate security breaches or to cooperate with authorities pursuant to a legal matter.

By accessing agreeing to the terms of our privacy policy you are consenting to our continued use of any such information. In the event of a sale, merger, liquidation, dissolution, reorganization or acquisition of Bird Visuals, or a Bird Visuals business or business unit, information Bird Visuals has collected about you may be sold or otherwise transferred. However, this will only happen if the party acquiring the information agrees to be bound by the terms of Bird Visuals' privacy policy and the notice provided to you when the information was collected.

For your convenience, this page may contain certain hyperlinks to other Bird Visuals pages as well as to sites outside Bird Visuals. While Bird Visuals has posted an appropriate Information Privacy Statement throughout our web site, we can make no promises or guarantees regarding data collection on the hyperlinked pages and sites that are not owned by Bird Visuals. We therefore recommend that you read the privacy policy statement for each site you visit.
